DayMark is more than a provider of quality food service safety products. We're a partner committed to meeting your food operation's unique needs with safety systems that work the way you do. In fact, our customers are at the center of everything we do. From procurement to food safety to the protection of your employees and facility – we deliver efficiency, quality, value and service that targets the needs of each member of your team. It's a customer-centric approach to business that shapes everything we do.

We understand the challenges and demands of today's food service industry, the importance of your reputation and the impact of safety and efficiency on your bottom line.

FOODSERVICE PROTECTION
THAT'S ON THE MARK.™
